BRODHEAD.

The way it looks now we will have two weddings in our town soon.

Per Rigsby, of the Hiatt section, raised from one acre of ground $200 worth of tobacco.

Dick Shivel, who for a number of years has been with the L. & N. carpenters, has quit the road and will farm this season.

The board of equalization is in session at Mt. Vernon and a great many farmers are doing some big kicking, as their property is being raised in valuation to the very highest notch.

Everything at present looks promising for good times in and around Brodhead. Merchants say that, notwithstanding the continued winter weather, business holds up, and is better now than for some time past.

Rev. W. D. Powell, secretary of the State Board of Missions, will preach at the Baptist church Thursday night, Jan. 27. Dr. Powell is one of the leading Baptist ministers in Kentucky and every one should try to hear him.

State Bank Inspector Wood, of Louisville, was here Tuesday. He reports the Citizens Bank in splendid condition. The old officers have been re-elected for the ensuing year. On Tuesday, Mrs. J. W. Hutchison, the wife of Cashier Hutchison, gave a dinner to the officers of the Bank, which was highly enjoyed by all.

The graded school here has an enrollment of 260 pupils and new ones coming in almost daily. Much praise can be given Miss Ida May Adams and her splendid assistants for the pains they are taking with the school. Mr. Albright, who is now in Louisville buying a stock of goods, will, about Feb. 1st, open another store here, as a consequence of a dissolution of the firm of Albright & Adams.

The side tracks are almost continually blocked with fine oak and poplar logs, wood, cross ties, spokes, etc. The Lyons Lumber Co. contemplate in the near future putting in a plant here for the manufacture of all kinds of wagon, plow and chair timber, using maple, sweet gum and beech timber, and promise, if the scheme is a sure go, that they will begin with between 30 and 40 laborers. Thus good times are staring us in the face.

J. W. Hutchison went to Louisville on business Wednesday. Mrs. G. W. Brooks, of Williamsburg, is with her mother, Mrs. Wilmot, this week. Miss Ruby Hilton, of Stanford, is with Mrs. J. T. Cherry. Mr. Herndon Hutchison was the guest of his brother, J. W., the first of the week. Mrs. Bettie Henderson, of Lowell, Garrard county, is with her daughter, Mrs. Ed Newland. Misses Lela Albright, Myrtle Shumate, Susie Cable and Randa Tate visited in Mt. Vernon the first of the week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Newland, on the 14th, a daughter, and to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ballard, on the 12th, a son. A little child of Grover McMullin, of the Ottawa section, is very low with fever. The 12-year-old daughter of Richard Killian, of the Maresburg vicinity, has pneumonia. Mrs. Roscoe Williams, of the Sayers neighborhood, has been very low with pneumonia, but is some better. Evan Wheelon, who has been off on the sick list for two weeks, is again at his post in the telephone exchange.

We have had many ups and downs in this life; sickness, sorrow of heart, disaster, disappointment, and etc., and so on but only those who have gone through the trials of a rugged life like ours can imagine our sorrow of heart at the sad intelligence of a wolf entering into our widowed sister's house and getting away with her only boy who was large enough to be of much use to her. Sad indeed this. We have heard of wolves catching lambs and pigs and etc., but this caps the climax. A wolf catching a grown up boy. We sympathize with our bereaved sister and the rest of her children and hope they will not grieve considering that their great loss is the dear boy's gain.

A. P. BRACKETT.

At St. Louis, a fellow walked the streets for several days, not knowing that his neck had been broken by a fall. He thought he had rheumatism and he went to a hospital for treatment, when the discovery was made. We know some people who have so much rubber in their necks that breaking the member would cause no pain whatever. —Richmond Climax.

A Frightful Wreck.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

George Graves, a retired farmer of Marion county, is dead at an advanced age.

R. M. Arnold, the Danville buggy man, supplied a new livery stable at Paris with its supply of vehicles.

Dr. R. H. Grinstead, who died at Muncifordville a few days since, was an uncle of Mrs. J. W. Ireland, of this place.

Dan and Thomas McDaniel, of Clay county, are in jail at Williamsburg, charged with the murder of Moses Evan.

James Cash, aged 17, who was given four years in the House of Reform for car-breaking, escaped from the Somerset jail.

Elmer Denny has been appointed postmaster at Oil Valley, Wayne county, and James D. Jones at Pellyton, Adair county.

A death verdict was returned by a jury at Pineville against James White, a Negro boy, for criminally assaulting Mollie Woodard, a white girl, 10 years old, in Middleboro, last July.

Acting Governor Cox appointed S. M. Wilson, of Lexington, special judge of the Boyle circuit court to try a case in which the newly elected Judge, M. C. Sautley, was one of the attorneys before the election.

At the examining trial of Mrs. Crabtree and son, on the charge of being parties to the murder of Andy Ramsey, both were discharged, the evidence not being sufficient to hold them over. Frank Perkins, who was also called up for trial, waived examining trial and was remanded to jail. R. A. Whitehead, of Livingston, has purchased the interest of George P. Elliott in the firm of Girdler Bros.-Elliott Co. William McKee, who was shot by Luther Sharpe, died of his injuries. Sharpe is in jail. —Somerset Times.

A Card of Thanks.

PORTSMOUTH, ENGLAND, JAN. 5.—A little more than five years ago, when I left my home in Australia, I little thought that I would ever learn to love America and Americans so much that I would have any feelings of regret when the time came to say good-bye.

Five years ago I landed in America a stranger in a strange land, with all the feelings of loneliness that come to one who is alone, though surrounded by people.

It is five years later and I have left the American shores and with them a host of warm friends. I still have the homesick feeling, but it is for "My Old Kentucky Home."

To my many friends, not only in Crab Orchard, but in Lincoln county, I want to say that my three years among you were years of unalloyed joy. I went among you a stranger, but you took me into your hearts and your homes and made me feel as one of yourselves. For this I give you my mother's love, for she always said, "give my love to all who have been kind to you."

And now with a God bless you, I must say to all, good-bye.

Your friend, GEO. D. VERCO.

MATRIMONIAL.

Miss Nora Lee Poynter, of Lawrenceburg, and Dr. Joseph P. Holt, of Versailles, were married Wednesday.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Gould, daughter of George J. Gould and granddaughter of Jay Gould, to Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., of Philadelphia, is announced.

Leonard N. Miller, the clever and efficient foreman of the Central Record at Lancaster, was married a few days ago to Miss Fannie Wilson, a pretty and popular Richmond girl.

Mr. J. Charles Pratt, of Fowler, Col., and Mrs. S. E. Rice, of Lexington, were married at the home of Mrs. L. M. Goodnight, Wednesday, Jan. 19, at 10:30, by Rev. D. M. Walker.

Married at the home of Rev. W. S. Willis at Hustonville, by that gentleman, on Jan. 12th, George Toombs and Miss Ella Brewer. They were accompanied by D. H. Toombs and Miss Elsie Wilson and Ed Lunsford and Miss Vina Toombs.

Those Pies Of Boyhood.

How delicious were the pies of boyhood. No pies now ever taste so good. What's changed? the pies? No. Its you. You've lost the strong, healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowels of boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food. What's needed? A complete toning up by Electric Bitters of all organs of digestion—Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels—Try them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

Two little girls lost their lives and the father, in trying to save them, was fatally burned at an oil lease 12 miles west of Bluffton, Ind.

NEWS NOTES.

The Farmers State Bank of Glasgow and the Third National Bank, also of that city, have consolidated.

One woman died from shock, three were seriously injured and two are missing as the result of a fire in the Hollingsworth apartment house, a five-story structure in West Philadelphia.

John Godwin, political lieutenant of T. Coleman du Pont, president of the du Pont Powder Company and Republican State chairman, of Delaware, must serve two years in jail for attempted election bribery.

Charges affecting the Burley Tobacco Society were to have been ventilated before Attorney General Wickersham and Wade H. Ellis, assistant to the Attorney General, at the Department of Justice yesterday.

The price of a comely girl in New York is $20. For this sum Elizabeth Harzo, 20 years old, was "sold" to a woman maintaining a resort, according to indictments returned by the Rockefeller white slave grand jury.

The indictment against Mayor John Skain, of Lexington, charging him with non-feasance in office, was dismissed without trial. It was charged in the indictment that the Mayor had not kept the streets in proper condition.

A contract was signed by "Tex" Rickard and the management of the Salt Air Beach Co. for the use of the bicycle track arena at the bathing resort at Salt Lake, Utah, as the scene of the Jeffries-Johnson contest, on July 4th.

The statement that a traffic and trackage agreement has been entered into between the Western Maryland railroad and the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad, a subsidiary line of the New York Central system, was confirmed by President Bush of the Western Maryland.

Dr. W. L. Nuttall, former superintendent of the Institute for the Feeble Minded at Frankfort, who was charged with detaining a female inmate several months ago, and who has been in hiding, it is said, in Mexico, turned up at his home at New Castle the other day and was declared insane.

The petition for a writ of certiorari in the case of John R. Walsh, former president of the Chicago National Bank, of Chicago, under sentence to five years' imprisonment in the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, on the charge of misapplying the funds of the bank, was denied by the Supreme Court of the United States.

Col. R. A. Thornton, one of the most prominent attorneys at the Lexington bar, was stopped from reading a newspaper in the Fayette Circuit Court by Judge Parker, who has ruled that reading papers in court constitutes contempt of court. Col. Thornton has raised an objection to the ruling on the grounds that it is unconstitutional.

After extending a rising vote of thanks to John D. Rockefeller for his "munificent and humanitarian" gift of $1,000,000 for the eradication of the hookworm disease, a permanent organization, to be known as the Southern Health Conference, was effected at the second day's session of the conference on the hookworm in at Atlanta.

It is reported from Frankfort that a compromise may be effected between the "wet" and "dry" Senators as to the committee assignment of the county unit bill. Eli H. Brown, Jr., has been selected as an intermediary. The "dry" forces prefer the Committee on Kentucky Statutes, while the "wets" are willing to have it referred to the Judiciary Committee. At any event, the measure will not be referred to the Committee on Religion and Morals, which was said to have been objectionable to the leaders in favor of the measure.

HIGHLAND.

Tom Williams' child is quite sick at this writing. Mrs. C. M. Young has been quite sick for two weeks. Andy Giesler has the Oklahoma chills.

Mr. Mullins, who recently moved into our midst from Louisville, is now teaching a subscription school at our schoolhouse, with a good attendance.

Rev. G. M. Cannon, of Kings Mountain, filled the pulpit of Rev. J. D. Haggard, pastor of the Methodist church, Sunday. The Church had Sabbath-school Sunday for the first time since the smallpox scare about November 1st.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Macon Vick, of Louisville, has been extended a call and has accepted the pastorate of the Second Baptist church at Bowling Green.

Rev. W. S. Willis' subject at the Christian church Hustonville Sunday morning will be "Self Examination" and at night "Gambling."

Strengthen your stomach and banish indigestion; Mi-o-na is guaranteed by G. L. Penny to do it or money back—50c.

Cummins & Wearen,

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

MIDDLEBURG.

J. F. Wall caught a large wild cat in a steel trap last week.

Rev. L. B. Lee will preach at the Baptist church Sunday.

George Sims, a widower, and Mrs. Calanza Powell, of the Doe creek section, were married last week.

W. P. Estes has taken charge of the back line from Yosemite to McKinney, having bought out McClellan McAninch.

The land trade mentioned in our last between Willie Watkins and Mrs. Mary Adams was no go, so we have been informed.

Jack Wells is deputy sheriff under T. F. Murphy and is now notifying those whose property has been raised by the board of supervisors.

Rev. Luster is down with measles and it is feared that there will be a wide spread of the disease, as he was at school a few days before he was taken down.

The supervisors raised the property of some 800 or more of Casey county citizens, and some of them are kicking like bay steers. As kicking is about the only privilege the tax-payers have, they will surely be allowed that.

Misses Willie Fogle, Wanda Hatter, Rhoda Elliott, Bettie Royalty, Annie Sharp and Ruby Fogle will leave Saturday to enter school at Bowling Green. Capt. A. B. Williams, the aged father of Mrs. Wm. Wheat, is quite sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. M. Sharp.

The Sunday-school Union of the South Kentucky Association will meet with the Baptist church here on the 29th and 30th of this month, when several ministers of that denomination will likely be present. The choir will prepare some special music for the occasion and make the services interesting. Everybody invited.

The Liberty people seem to have tired of the soft drink business as it has been conducted there of late. The town council has raised the license for selling such drinks to $1,000, thus shutting out the business entirely. "Near beer" kept getting a little nearer, it is said, until it actually got up in the neighborhood of the real stuff.

One day last week while hunting in the woods near Yosemite, Sam Sharp and Quince Jones found the tracks of what they supposed to be a wild turkey. They followed in hot pursuit for some distance and suddenly came on the game in a thicket and opened fire, emptying both barrels of their fowling pieces. Strange as it may seem, as both of them were suffering with an attack of "buck ague," they actually brought down a large buzzard that had been previously disabled by the sleet. They agreed to keep the joke a secret, but Sam told Mrs. Sharp and she in turn told Mrs. R. M. Sharp, who has taken a delight in telling it to every one she meets.
